

Marshall Haraden

Marshall graduated Arizona State in 1982 with a degree in Construction Engineering. Right out of college he worked with Frost construction in Phoenix and Colorado Springs. He built approximately 2000 apartment units. He moved back to California in 1985 and started his own construction company. Marshall has 28 years of experience as President of The Marshall Group. He is the father of four and enjoys spending time with his family and visiting his native San Diego, Ca.